Gone

It was a rainy day that morning when he left his home and no one of his family realized that he was gone and when he drove on a dirty road with pictures of his life in his mind he knew there never would have been another way to give her a new start

Because she couldn't make up her mind to change her life
and he was sure that the other man would give her everything that he never ever could and the pain cut's like a knife but he saw no solution
and so he decided to go

When his little boy woke up he shouted for his daddy and his woman found the letter he had written for goodbye and she cried with rage because she felt betrayed but she knew him all too well to feel that he had gone forever

1:58

Ah ha
Ah ha
Ah ha

And she couldn't make up her mind

Ah ha
Ah ha
He had to go
