The Free Electric Band

My father was a doctor, yes he was a family man My mother worked for charity whenever she can and they were clean Americans who abided by the law they both stuck up for liberty and both supported war

My happiness was paid for when they laid their money down

For summers in a summer camp and winters in the town
My future in the system was talked about and planned
But I dreamt of making music and a Free Electric Band

I went to school in hand-washed shirts with neatly ordered hair

The school was big and newly built and filled with light and air

The teachers taught us values that we had to learn to keep

They'd clip the ear of any idle kid who went to sleep

My father organised for me a college in the east
But I went to California, the sunshine and the beach
My parents and my lecturers would never understand Why I dreamt of making music and a Free Electric Band

Well, they used to sit and speculate upon my great career
A lawyer or a doctor or a civil engineer

I asked for bread and water, and a guitar in my hand
'Cause all I need is music and The Free Electric Band

Ohhhh the Free Electric Band
Baba da badab dab diiib dib
The Free Electric Band

Ohhhh the Free Electric Band
Baba da badab dab diiib dib
The Free Electric Band

Ohhhh the Free Electric Band
Baba da badab dab diiib dib
